December 2018/January 2019

Dear Praying Friends,

December started off with a flurry of business and activity as Christmas approached. On Sunday the 9th we had our Family Day and kids Christmas Program. The Kids did a fine job and we had several visitors in the service, with 44 in attendance.

We had Bro Jerry and Denise Smith come for a visit to Nauru in Dec/Jan so they could hold down the fort for us to leave the island and spend some time with family in Australia. They were in our "Neighbourhood" filling in in Kiribati and Fiji, and made time to come fill in and be a blessing to us, and the ministry here. They did a fine job while we were gone, and our people really enjoyed them and the services.

While in Australia we had Christmas with my family, and celebrated my Mum's 70th Birthday and I was able to preach at Gold Coast Baptist Church and Trinity Baptist Church and give a report on work in Nauru. We had some time away as a family on a Houseboat in the Gold Coast Broadwater (it was the boys favorite part of the trip). Christie and I got to spend some time away as Nanny and Poppy took care of the boys. We also got some things organized and shipped back to Nauru that needed replacing. There were restful times and busy times, we enjoyed our time in "Civilization" but by the end of it we were ready to get back home to Nauru and our normal ministry and school schedule here.
